Workshops Descriptions

The following workshops were designed by the School of Contemporary Teaching & Learning (SCTL) to provide an opportunity to better prepare Faculty/Staff for the first week of class. The time and location for each work is provided in the previous calendars.

Additional one-on-one sessions can be scheduled by contacting individual team members.

Topic	Description	Facilitators	Target Audience
Bb Open Session (onsite/skype)	This workshop is designed as a customized training session where participants can bring their own questions about Blackboard. An eLearning Specialist will collate the inquiries at the start of the session and will share key strategies to address each item.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Carolle Boudreau, eLearning Specialist • Elizabeth Pero, eLearning Specialist 	All employees
Inclusive Toolkit: Teaching Strategies for Faculty (onsite/skype)	Our classrooms are increasing with students who represent a broad range of racial, cultural, linguistic, physical and intellectual backgrounds. This workshop provides a starting point for honouring and benefitting from this diversity in our classrooms. Through self-reflection and discussion, we will provide practical teaching strategies for optimizing our diverse students engagement , comprehension and retention in the classroom.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ekta Singh, Inclusivity & Intercultural Specialist 	Faculty
PT Faculty Orientation	This evening session is designed for new and returning PT faculty who are interested in learning more about the various services that will support them in their teaching. Participants will be provided with important updates and are encouraged to bring their own questions to the open session.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Guest Speakers (various departments) Main contacts: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Deb Stava, Dean (Cornwall) • Doug Roughton, Dean (Brockville) • André Léger, Associate Dean SCTL (Kingston) 	Any new or returning PT Faculty
